Pigment International to host award-winning artists at The Other Art Fair March 27-30

Friday Reception to announce Pigmented Black Fine Art Faire during Black Fine Art Month

CHICAGO — For the third consecutive year, Pigment International will be a media partner for The Other Art Fair, March 27 – 30 at Artifact Events in Chicago’s Ravenswood neighborhood. The collective will host artists including painters Thomas Lockhart and Kristen Williams; photographer Krystal Boney, ceramicist Gary Gee, wire sculptor Ladipo Famodu, multimedia artists Reggie McFly and Candace Hunter, and sculptor and winner of the Richard Hunt Award D. Lamar Preston. The artists will be on hand for meet and greets during the show.

On Friday, March 28 from 6:00 p.m. the collective will unveil plans for their Pigmented Black Fine Art Faire to be held during Black Fine Art Month in October. This new endeavor is not just an art fair; it will unite leading galleries, visionary artists, and influential arts organizations from across the country. Join Pigment at the show to learn more during the official announcement.

The organization will also host the DREAM, Chicago Youth Art Challenge \(CYAC\), mentees for a tour of the exhibition at The Other Art Fair. CYAC is an initiative created by a collective of renowned Chicago-based artists passionate about providing a platform for young artists to express themselves and make a positive impact through art. They are Barrett Keithley, Dana Todd Pope, Blake Lenoir, Kristen Williams, Eddie Santana White, Chazarhae M.W., Martha Wade and Dwight White.

As media partners, Pigment International's booth at The Other Art Fair will have issues of the collective's award winning magazine for sale. Pigment International founder Patricia Andrews Keenan said the highlight of the year is attending expositions right here in Chicago. "Our team travels all over the country, yet this international, artist focused show is inspiring," said Andrews-Keenan. "Having a partnership with The Other Art Fair for the past three years has allowed us to expose our audiences to what is next in fine art."
